Fifty-first Congress.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, April 17.—Senator Cullom introduced a bill providing that in all cases where it shall appear that parties have paid $2.50 per acre for land reduced in price to $1.25 per acre by act of June 17, 1888, the secretary of the interior shall be authorized to repay such parties the excess price of $1.25 per acre.

On motion of Mr. Plumb the bill to confirm certain lands heretofore granted for the purpose of aiding in the construction of railroads was taken up for consideration. A number of amendments were offered and ordered printed and then the bill went over until to-morrow.

The senate then resumed consideration of the bill for admission of the state of South Dakota and organization of the territory of North Dakota, and was addressed by Vest in opposition to the bill. The senator from Wisconsin (Spooner) had spoken yesterday of secession and civil war. Vest said that in his opinion there was no disposition in any section of the country to secede. The only danger to the union was from the state trying to break out of the union and states trying to break into it, but what did last session say of a state neither in nor out of the union, which claimed to exist, and a state in spite of the laws, in defiance of congress. If any southern community had undertaken to do what the people of Dakota had done there would have been an outcry unparalleled only exceeded by that in regard to Fort Sumter, and the senator from Vermont would have proposed a piece of legislation equivalent to that celebrated legislation which he had carried out in 1876, which put Hayes into the presidential chair, and to arms, to arms, would have been the cry all over the north.

Edmunds wished to say with emphasis that he believed and that nine-tenths of the people of the United States who knew anything about it believed, he thought, that President Hayes was lawfully and fairly and justly elected by the votes of the states according to the constitution of the country, and the only evil which had existed in regard to that matter was the attempt of a body of men at headquarters in New York to buy the electors of South Carolina, and those men had not been republicans.

Vest said Conkling had made use of expressions in the senate chamber showing that he doubted the election of Mr. Hayes, and to this Edmunds replied that he believed Mr. Vest was mistaken and that Conkling thought Hayes was lawfully elected.

Vest remarked that when the senator from Vermont states that a large majority of the people believed that Hayes was elected he must take issue with him. As to the purpose of the democratic party in the bill being to keep out the three electoral votes of South Dakota, Vest denied energetically and declared his belief that Cleveland would be elected by a majority in which the votes would be so small a fraction as to affect the result to no appreciable extent. Democratic senators were willing to admit the whole territory of Dakota as a state, but they were not willing to divide it.

A vote will be taken on the bill to-morrow.

The senate passed thirty-five private pension bills and then adjourned.

HOUSE.

At 1.10 p. m. the house went into committee of the whole, Springer of Illinois in the chair, for consideration of the tariff bill. No opposition was made to Mills' motion to this effect.

Mills stated that the object of the great increase of duties made during the war had been, at the time they were made, stated to be only temporary, yet a quarter of a century later these duties were higher than they were during the war and they now average 47.1 per cent on imports. The income tax had been imposed to meet war expenses. It was $70,000,000 annually realized from that source was swept away, but the war tax on clothing, on food, on implements of labor remained, and the war was still being prosecuted against the people, a fiscal war, exhausting in its demands, and every effort to remove or lower that taxation had been resisted and defeated. Democrats had been taunted with the charge that they had failed to reduce taxation. This charge had been made by the minority, which had been guilty of preventing action on the many bills brought into the house by the committee on ways and means.

Mills turned his attention to woolen manufactures and argued that the public at large was injured by the present excessive tax and nobody benefitted. High duties prohibited and limited importations and exportations. We were feeding the people of Europe. When we put high duties on the goods they sent us in exchange for food it amounted to taxing our own agricultural exports. A reduction of duties would not, as stated, check manufactures and cramp labor. We always imported more goods when prices were high. Under lower duties we could export more goods, manufacturers would run steadily, labor would be constantly employed, not more than ten per cent of the goods consumed in the United States would be imported if all the custom houses were torn down and the government supported by direct taxation. Protectionists argue that manufactured articles were cheaper here than in any other country, as the result of protection. It was not so. But supposing that it was why then should they resist any economical any effort to lower duties if they were able to undersell European manufacturers. Did manufacturers pay higher wages because protection enabled them to do it? No. Jay Gould was able to pay his bootblack $5000, but he did not do it. He paid the market price, paid him as he did a cattle man. Higher wages were made by coal, steam and machinery, and higher wages mean lower cost of production. The argument for the fact that free trade England paid higher wages than protective France and Germany and yet controlled the world's markets. He had requested the present chief of the labor bureau to ascertain if there was any exception to the rule that wages depended on the efficiency of labor and the result of highly paid labor was a low cost of the efficient product. In answer he read a tabulated statement prepared by Mr Wright giving

Emperor Frederick's Condition.

BERLIN, April 17.—The emperor passed a somewhat quieter night. The Crown Prince and Prince Henry remained at the castle all night. The National Zeitung says the case of grippe from which he is now suffering is not a case of simple bronchial inflammation but of extension of the disease of the larynx to the bronchial tubes and thence to the lungs themselves. This new complication is the result of what occurred last week. The canula not lying in its proper position became stopped up and the secretion from the larynx, instead of finding an outlet through the canula, passed along the outside of it into the bronchial tubes producing inflammation. The physicians, including Professors Bergen and Senator, are now holding a consultation. There is no chance to the favorable condition of the emperor. He was visited by the crown prince.

BERLIN, 2.15 p. m.—Emperor Frederick has had a quiet night. He slept half the night without any considerable breaks, rose shortly after eleven and afterwards appeared at the window of the bedroom. The fever is abating and the general temperature have improved. A more hopeful feeling is beginning to prevail. The consultation of physicians this morning is reported to have resulted in an agreement that there is no inflammation of the lungs and that the bronchitis is abating. In fact it is said there is a divergence of opinion among the doctors as to whether bronchitis has appeared at all, or whether the fever and difficulty of breathing were not traceable to abscess in the trachea. If the latter is the case it is considered probable that the crisis in the emperor's condition will be overcome.

BERLIN, April 17. The following was issued at 9 p. m.: The symptoms of bronchitis have considerably diminished since yesterday and the fever has abated. The emperor passed a better night and his general condition is satisfactory.

BERLIN, April 17, 4.30 p. m. The Crown Prince and Prince Henry will return to Berlin this evening from Charlottenburg. The emperor was able to hear the report of General Albedyll, with whom he had an interview lasting three quarters of an hour.

FLORENCE, Italy, April 17. Queen Victoria had ordered a special train to convey her to Berlin this morning, but hearing Emperor Frederick's condition was improved, postponed her departure.

LONDON, April 17.—A dispatch from Berlin to the Exchange Telegraph company, by a circuitous route, that the physicians, at their consultation to-day, agreed that the emperor's malady was approaching its last stage. This news has been guardedly conveyed to members of the royal family. It being intimated to them that the emperor requires the utmost care, though, for the moment, there is no immediate danger. The empress has postponed her visit on Thursday to Luisburg and Wittenberg.

BERLIN, April 17.—The emperor's fever has increased toward night. Otherwise there is no change in his condition.

Louisiana Election.

NEW ORLEANS, April 17.—The election yesterday was practically very quiet, so far as known throughout the state. A shooting scrape at poll No 3, this city, was the only affray here of any consequence. Reports from the outside indicate Nicholls, democratic candidate, for governor, has been elected. The counting is progressing slowly.

A Times-Democrat special from Jeanerette says: In a dispute at the polls today Nicholas Provost was shot dead and his brother, L. R. Provost was mortally wounded. The trouble is said to have arisen from a family feud.

Gen Election Affray.

NEW ORLEANS, April 17.—All places of business are closed as on Sundays. The election is progressing. Central wards appear to be polling a heavy vote for Davey and the regular ticket, while downtown and uptown wards, it is claimed, are polling a heavy vote for the Independent Young Men's Democratic association's candidate. A difficulty occurred this morning at poll three, in the Second ward, between Thomas S. Nobles, special officer of the latter association, and Sergeant Mike McLaughlin, of the regular force. It is stated some one struck Nobles, knocked him down, and that he then drew a revolver and fired three shots, one of which struck a man named Bynum in the stomach. Nobles and a man named Ketens were locked up as principal and accessory in the affair, and the wounded man was sent to the hospital. The shooting occasioned great excitement and further trouble is feared.

An Indian on a Drunk.

LAS CRUCES, Minn., April 17.—While two Indian policemen attempted to arrest Sacate, a Mescalero Apache Indian, and his son, who were drunk and causing trouble in camp, a fight ensued, in which one of the policemen was killed. Sacate's son was fatally and three women seriously injured by stray shots. Sacate was finally secured and locked up.

The Mississippi Rising.

ALMA, Wis., April 17.—Water in the Mississippi at this point has risen twenty inches in twelve hours. Twenty families have been driven from their homes. Railway tracks have suffered great damage. The Winneiska boom has gone out and 2,000,000 feet of logs have been carried away. The damage to property is estimated at $50,000. Logs to the value of $100,000 have been swept away.

Precautions in Paris.

PARIS, April 17.—In view of threats made in the past few days by alarmists, the revival of the Boulanger sentiment, and as a precautionary measure, the troops will be kept in barracks all day Thursday and in addition extra brigades of police and an exceptionally large force will be detached to guard the chamber of deputies.

Strike of Switchmen.

KANSAS CITY, April 17.—All Burlington switchmen in the yards here quit work at 7 o'clock this evening and the road is badly crippled in handling freight. The cause of the strike was the refusal of the company to discharge a foreman whom they had been ordered by the assembly to discharge for assaulting a night watchman.

Assassinated by a Mexican.

ST LOUIS, April 17. Thomas M. Kennedy, a wealthy cattle dealer at Brownsville, Texas, was killed by Sheriff Jose Marie Esparza, a wealthy Mexican near Ferry Landing, Texas. The cause was jealousy. The Mexican was concealed behind a tree when he fired.

The Wool Market.

PHILADELPHIA, April 17.—Wool dull and nominal.

BOSTON, April 17.—The wool market remains without material change, the general tendency of prices being in favor of buyers.

Boycott at Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, April 17. The conditions are favorable for a general lockout of brewers. Moerlin having refused to reinstate a man at the request of his fellow workmen, they struck. Their action was ratified last night by the brewers' union, which declared an immediate boycott of Moerlin's beer. Boss brewers, in anticipation of this, resolved to stand together, in case any one was boycotted. In obedience to the resolution one of Moerlin's customers, who had this morning stopped taking Moerlin's beer and tried to buy elsewhere, was refused. Both sides are committed to the contest.

The Brewers Weakening.

NEW YORK, April 17.—A journeymen's contract has been signed by Schmidt & Schumanentlegel, New York brewers, and members of the association. This is the first break in the employers' ranks. The strikers state that they have received requests for a conference from three companies associated with the boss brewers.

Paper Combine Formed.

NEW YORK, April 17.—The Commercial Advertiser's Albany special says: The Fourth National Bank of Albany has become the depository of the paper combine, which has been formed by the consolidation of the Hollingsworth, Whitney, Hudson River, Glens Falls, Finch, Pruyn, Cohoes, Mohawk, Hudson, Adirondack, Warren County, Sandy Hill, Lake George, Ticonderoga, Saratoga, Albany, Rensselaer, Troy, Lansingburgh, Cayuga, Oswego, Oneida, Onondaga, Jefferson, Lewis, Black River, Watertown, Carthage, Ogdensburg, Potsdam, Franklin, Essex, Clinton, Washington, Rensselaer, Columbia, Greene, Ulster, Orange, Sullivan, Delaware, Otsego, Chenango, Broome, Tioga, Tompkins, Cortland, Chemung, Schuyler, Steuben, Allegany, Monroe, Livingston, Ontario, Wayne, Orleans, Niagara, Erie, Genesee, Wyoming, Chautauqua, Cattaraugus, Allegany

REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.

HEADQUARTERS OF THE REPUBLICAN STATE COMMITTEE,
DENVER, Colo., April 1, 1888.

In accordance with the instructions of the Republican State Central committee, a convention of the republican party of Colorado is hereby called to meet at Pueblo on Tuesday, the 15th day of May, 1888, at 10 o'clock a. m., to elect six delegates and six alternates to the national republican convention, to be held at Chicago, Ill., on the 19th day of June, 1888, to nominate candidates for the republican party for the offices of president and vice president of the United States, and to transact such other business as may properly come before said state convention.

The several counties of the state will be entitled to representation in said convention as follows, to-wit:

| | Delegates | | Delegates |
|---|---|---|---|
| Arapahoe | 8 | Jefferson | 4 |
| Archuleta | 4 | Lake | 11 |
| Bent | 4 | La Plata | 4 |
| Boulder | 6 | Larimer | 11 |
| Chaffee | 8 | Las Animas | 14 |
| Clear Creek | 11 | Logan | 6 |
| Conejos | 4 | Mesa | 4 |
| Costilla | 4 | Montezuma | 4 |
| Crowley | 4 | Montrose | 4 |
| Custer | 4 | Otero | 4 |
| Delta | 4 | Ouray | 4 |
| Dolores | 4 | Pitkin | 4 |
| Douglas | 4 | Pueblo | 11 |
| Eagle | 4 | Rio Blanco | 4 |
| Elbert | 6 | Routt | 5 |
| El Paso | 13 | Saguache | 4 |
| Fremont | 8 | San Juan | 4 |
| Garfield | 10 | San Miguel | 10 |
| Gilpin | 6 | Summit | 4 |
| Grand | 4 | Washington | 12 |
| Gunnison | 15 | Weld | 10 |
| Hinsdale | 4 | Total | 350 |
| Huerfano | 10 | | |

The basis of apportionment is one delegate to every seventy-five votes cast for Hon. Alvin Marsh for attorney general, and one delegate for the fraction of twenty-five or over thereof, for all counties except Weld, Washington and Logan, for which the vote for Hon. T. M. Patterson for district judge last fall is taken as the basis. Under the resolution of the committee, Weld county was entitled to the Marsh basis, but her committee has voluntarily accepted the Patterson vote as being the equitable basis, in view of the fact that at the last state election Logan and Washington counties were included in Weld, each county of the three being entitled to three delegates at large.

A full convention of delegates is earnestly desired.

H. A. W. TOURTELLOTTE, Chairman.
J. N. SILVERS, Secretary.

One of our Denver contemporaries speaks of Matthew Arnold as the author of "Tom Brown at Oxford."

Mayor Strickley's opening address was a model utterance in its way. It put the city's interests before all partisan or personal interests.

The council did not get along very quietly Monday night in the election of officers. The difference of opinion shows at least that there is no clique strong enough in the council to govern it.

Two members of the council voted for a man for city physician charged with signing prescriptions for liquor in blank. This is a suggestion to other physicians who wish to be candidates next year.

Mr. Dana, the present city marshal, has his commission on Monday night, and is likely to be his own successor. Since he has been in office he has given satisfaction except to those who wish to break the ordinances. This ought not to be considered a disqualification for his office.

We have received the fifth annual report of the chamber of commerce and board of trade of Denver. It is compiled by General Frank Hall, secretary of the organization. While the pamphlet is largely devoted to Denver, it contains more valuable and recent information regarding the industrial resources of the state than we have seen in any recent publication. It will be found exceedingly valuable for reference. It is the kind of a pamphlet that we should have expected General Hall to prepare.

The budget presented a few days ago by Mr. Goschen in the English parliament shows a prospective surplus of two hundred and twelve thousand pounds. By this budget, the receipts will be reduced about five hundred and twelve thousand pounds. This budget suggests many comparisons with our own. Our surplus amounts to about one hundred million dollars. The statesmanship of the country is considering the question how this surplus shall be reduced, but the problem is not yet solved. The condition in this country is anomalous. It is probably the first instance where it has been found difficult to dispose of so large a surplus. It is one of the most remarkable evidences of the richness of this country.

For almost eighteen years France has had a republican form of government. The various changes in the office of president have all been accomplished in such a peaceful manner that people have begun to look upon the present form of the government as stable. But every now and then the French people, carried away by enthusiasm, do some very foolish things. For example General Boulanger was convicted before a court martial of five generals of division of deception and lying. Cypher telegrams were the means of his conviction. The decision of these five generals was unanimous and has been approved by the president. By this decision General Boulanger was placed on the retired list. He is now taken up by the people of Nancy and has already been elected to the chamber of deputies by large majorities from several districts.

Coal Oil and Conventicles.

To the Editor of the Gazette.

Visitors to the continent of Europe, or those who have mingled with the worshippers in the churches and cathedrals of Athens and Rome, must often have been astonished by the fervidness with the [illegible] for Madonna's pose in choice. Now as two cents American currency are equal to ten centimes the draft upon the exchequer is not overwhelming.

We have changed all that in Denver. We have no gilded cathedrals, but we have a coal oil conventicle where chairs are set apart or reserved at the charge of five dollars and upwards. Five hundred cents represents 2500 centimes. It is clear from this that the widow and her mite are not one of the sights that would be considered respectable in a coal oil conventicle. She would feel more at home under the dome of St Peter's at Rome, who sends sent home by good Mistress Stone.

Coal oil has become a necessity and the denizens of Denver were promised a supply good and cheap when the mills at Florence were in full operation inasmuch as the costly freight charges from the far east would be saved.

What has been the outcome of these fair and pleasant promises. About twenty days of reduced prices since when the situation has been as you were, that is the tariff was restored to the old figures, a 50 per cent advance.

The only cramb of comfort the Colorado old timers or new timers have to set against this contretemps is, that thousands or ten of thousands of dollars (arising from this unhallowed transaction) have been devoted to the purchase of a grand organ. If this is eminently satisfactory to all and singular who are accustomed to pray, "Lighten our Darkness," then the patience of Job, or the humbleness of Uriah Heep will suffer eclipse, as exemplary examples, and will give place to the saying, "Kickable as a Rocky Mountain coal oil consumer.

The dulcet notes of the organ are not to be despised. It is a noble instrument of promise, but methinks the performer who runs his fingers over the manuals and stops of this particular Box o' Pipes will labor under great disadvantage. There will always be a shadow or flaw emitted, telling not of the heavens above, but of the earth beneath, and who can make a joyful noise, much less a tuneful sound under such depressing influences?

TEMPERANCE NOTES.

As a result of the late election the entire city council of Oskaloosa, Kan., is composed of women. A local paper says the ladies are wives of prominent professional and business men, are fully equal to cope in the affairs, and it is confidently expected that the city will be better paved and have better enforcement of the Sunday law, fewer hoodlums on the streets at night and a better city government every way. The experiment will be watched with interest by the whole state.

Miss Frances E. Willard, newly elected president of the national council of women, the outgrowth of the great ten days' meeting recently held in Washington, asks the press to print the following extracts from the constitution:

"We, the women of the United States, sincerely believing that the best good of our homes and nation will be advanced by the prayerful unity of thought, sympathy and purpose, and that an organized movement of women will best conserve the highest good of the family and the state, do hereby band ourselves together in a confederation of workers, committed to the overthrow of all forms of ignorance and injustice, and to the application of the golden rule to society, custom and law.

"This council is organized in the interest of no one propaganda, and has no power over its auxiliaries beyond that of suggestion and sympathy, therefore no society voting to become auxiliary to this council shall by that act, render itself liable to be interfered with in respect to its complete organic unity, independence or methods of work; and no society thus voting shall be by that act, committed to any precept or method of any other society or to any utterance or act of the council itself beyond compliance with the terms of the constitution.

"This National Council shall hold triennial meetings."

It is believed that with so broad a platform as this, all organized societies of women whose work is of national character or national value may be represented in the work and meetings of the council. Already a journalist of national reputation, Mrs. Emily E. Briggs "Olivia" of Washington, D. C., has announced a gift to this national council of property worth from one to two hundred thousand dollars, to be used in establishing a school for girls, where they can be trained industriously as well as mentally for every good word and work.

THE GAZETTE.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 18, 1888.

The police magistrate fined a man for drunkenness yesterday.

The Arch Hayward aggregation will arrive at Manitou May 2d.

Mr. Ed. Minium is the newly elected chief of the Colorado City fire department.

The latest entries for the foot races are Mr. F. H. A. Lyle, of last year's polo team, and Mr. John Hamilton.

The Consolidated Stationery company have just received a fine assortment of the latest novelties in note paper, picture mouldings, etc.

There are undelivered telegrams at the Western Union telegraph office for Henry T. Williams, Andy B. Wright and George W. Birkhimer.

By a notice in another column it will be seen that bids are solicited for the new Congregational church. Plans can be seen at the office of Pease & Barber.

Badito Legion No. 16, Select Knights A. O. U. W., will hold a regular meeting at 7:30 this evening. Members and visiting comrades are requested to attend.

The Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railroad company have just put two arc lights near the passenger depot which will be lighted with incandescent lights.

Mr. F. H. Russell of Cripple Creek is making preparations to enlarge his hotel in order to accommodate the great rush to that place on account of the building of the Rock Island.

A business meeting of the Colorado Springs Gun club for election of officers and the transaction of other business will be held at the office of the First National bank this afternoon at half past three o'clock.

Mrs. Tuttle has purchased from Mr. John Hulbert, through Tutt, McDaniel & Co.'s real estate agency, the house and lot at the corner of Monument and Weber streets, which she will greatly improve.

The opera house orchestra will furnish music for the dance which will be given next Friday evening in the city hall by the Firemen's band. The proceeds of the dance will be given to Mr. G. S. Taylor, who is on the sick list.

Mr. D. Cal McMillan, a wealthy young banker of Chattanooga, Tennessee, accompanied by his wife and cousin, Miss Kate Lyle, are in the city at the Alamo, en route home from California. They may remain in Colorado several weeks.

Many of our people will remember the charming little Patti Rosa, who appeared in our city last season. She will [illegible] another engagement at the opera house next Monday evening. Patti Rosa is a great favorite with [illegible] the only one who has permission to appear in any of Lotta's plays. She will no doubt draw a large house.

On the fourth page will be seen an advertisement announcing an allotment sale by Messrs. Tutt, McDaniel & Co., of a portion of the new platting of Grand View. The advertisement will doubtless be read with interest by those desiring to make investment in the manner indicated. The property is certainly beautifully located, and fortunately so, with reference to water for both domestic and irrigating purposes.

The Raymond & Whitcomb Excursion bureau, of Boston, has arranged four excursions to Colorado resorts to occur during the coming summer. The excursions will leave Boston July 23, August 20, September 3 and October 15, coming from Chicago to Pueblo over the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe, and then going to Silverton, Ouray and to Manitou and Denver over the Rio Grande, returning east over the Union Pacific.

Yesterday's issue of the Denver Republican contained the following special dispatch from Washington: The board of [illegible] depositions reported adversely to pay on the claim of H. M. Teachout of Rio Grande county, Colorado, for $12,000 damages sustained in 1868 from the Arapahoe Indians. The board find that the claimant lost sixty mares, six mules, twenty ox carts and one stallion, but that the claim was not presented within the limitation fixed by law and that the amount of loss must be left to the final determination of congress.

The track of the Athletic grounds has been greatly improved by cutting off some five feet from the corners. This was done to accommodate the bicycle men, who will now have no difficulty in spinning around the corners as fast as they please. Scraper, sprinkler and roller are kept at work yet and by tonight Mr. Davidson, of the College Park conservatory, will have it down fine. The back stops with two dressing rooms will be put up today and by to morrow night all the buildings will have a neat coat of paint.

Mr. E. McCampbell, a wealthy cattleman of Wichita, Kas., and a friend of City Marshal Dana, who has been in the city since last Saturday, returned to his home yesterday. Mr. Campbell was greatly pleased with his visit to Colorado Springs, and will return with his family in about two months. He has lately visited several of the large cities of the state, where he disposed of some of his corn-fed cattle. Mr. T. S. Brigham, of this city, accompanied him to Wichita for the purpose of purchasing some of his cattle for this market.

Yesterday's issue of the Denver News contained the following: "President R. R. Cable, of the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific, returned to Chicago last night. He held a conference with General Manager Smith, of the Rio Grande yesterday afternoon and is understood to have arranged the contract between his road and the Rio Grande for hauling of Rock Island cars from Colorado Springs to Denver. President Cable told a News reporter that the road would be pushed to Colorado Springs as rapidly as possible and that he hoped that his good opinion of Colorado would be realized."

The young men who have given money and time to the enclosure of the base ball grounds and the building of the grand stand have done for the city what has been greatly desired for a long time. The grounds will be opened to the public on Friday with an excellent list of athletic sports and the promoters should receive a liberal support. We know that over two hundred dollars, in the shape of prizes, putting the track in trim, for music, etc., etc., is the actual cost of the exhibition to take place on Friday, and this is entirely outside of permanent improvements which will cost some fifteen hundred dollars. The public should appreciate these efforts and patronize the grounds. The sports are all honest and manly and will be contested by home talent, of which we have been proud in the past.

A Card.

Having noticed in the city council proceedings of Monday night that several votes were cast for me for the office of city marshal, I desire to publicly state that I was not and am not a candidate for the position. Thanking my friends in the council for this evidence of their friendship, I am respectfully,

JAMES McCABE.
